CREAM OF NEWS.

IF IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN
HAS IT.

Two Fires in Neighboring Towns—Candidates—Will Probated—Hugh Phelps—Ball For Wootton—Mad Dog.

Sealed her Daughter's Suitor.
At Bardford, Ky., Mrs. Webster
Cate was held to answer to Circuit Court, under bond of $1,000 for scalder young Paul Foreman, her daughter's suitor.

Will Ask For Ball.

T. W. Wootton, through his attorneys, has filed a petition and asked for a writ of habeas corpus, before Judge Jas. Breathitt, in order to secure bail. He has fixed next Saturday as his time for hearing the case
on the application for bail. Mr.
Wootton can give bond in any amount.

Baptist Circle Meetings.

The Seventh Circle of the Bethel Association of Baptists met at the Baptist church Saturday, and an entertaining program was carried out.
The circle is composed of the Hopkinsville church and fourteen others
in the northern part of the county.
Other circle meetings were held at Locust
Grove and Trenton on Saturday and Sunday.

Will Probated.

The will of John A. Lewis, who died at Crofton Friday, was probated yesterday. The document directs that the house and lot at Crofton be given to his wife, Mrs. Sarah J. Lewis, and that the rest of his property be bequeathed to his children, O. A.
West qualified as administrator and Messrs. L. R. Davis, C. M. Gray, and
T. J. Davis were appointed appraisers.

Bitten By a Mad Dog.

Jack Daws of the White Plains country, while en route home from Christian county, Saturday encountered a mad dog. The dog attacked Daws, biting him in the hand and finger.
Mr. Daws had quite a fight with the dog, but finally succeeded in driving it off, killing it from the paws and cutting the canine's throat. He immediately went to Henderson where a mad-stone was applied to the wounds. It adheared several times.—
Daws.

Hugh Phelps Goes to Clarksville.

Mr. Hugh R. Phelps, the well known hotel man, left yesterday for Clark-ville to assume the management of the Arlington Hotel. Mr. Phelps has been Hotel manager in this city and manager of the Barron Hotel, the Hotel Ladd, and Rudd House, Owensboro, all good hotels, in which he acquired a wide and thorough knowledge of all of the details of the hotel business. Mr. Phelps is a man of fine character, has excellent business qualifications, and in going to Clarksville takes with him the good wishes of many friends. He has been in this city for some months,
since he returned from Owensboro.

Judge John Phelps.

The formal announcement of Judge
John Phelps as a Democratic candidate for circuit judge in this district appears in our columns to-day. Judge Phelps is the only candidate Christian county will present for the circuit court. He was a formidable opponent, and it is a good will enter the contest with a strong following all over the district. Judge Phelps has frequently presided as pro tem judge and always with much credit to himself and satisfaction to the bar and legal profession. He is one of the strongest members of the Hopkinsville bar, with a judicial mind, ready store of legal knowledge and valuable experience coming from long and successful practice. Judge Phelps will make well for the leading candidate in the Murray contest,
with flattering prospects of success.

J. T. Hanbury.

Judge J. T. Hanbury, judge of the Hopkinsville City Court, is announced to day as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this the third judicial district. His claims are the result of successful action to the office of commonwealth's attorney, which he is and has always been a legal and able man.
Judge Hanbury is a young man of fine promise in his profession and his rise has been rapid and steady since he entered upon the practice of the law four or five years ago. As city judge he has shown himself capable of making an able and accurate officer. He is a speaker of force and clearness and during the campaign
last year was one of the most popular of the candidates who caused Christian and Taylor counties to be a fine mixer and an agreeable gentleman and will prove to be a very formidable candidate for the office he is seeking.

MADISONVILLE HAS A FIRE.

Losses Aggregate $25,000 with $10,000
Insurance.

Madisonville, Ky., Jan. 25.—Madisonville was visited by a bad fire last night involving a loss of $25,000. The fire originated in the Opera House,
after the "Uncle Josh Sprucey" Company had vacated after a performance.

The fire was checked at Whiting-hill's store, owing to the brave efforts of the fire ladies and the splendid wall that separated the store from the Opera House.

The fire entailed a loss of about $25,000 as follows:

Jernigan & Ray, loss on building
proper, $9,000; loss on Opera House,
$8,000; J. W. Smith & Co., $1,500.

J. W. Smith & Co., saloon fixtures and stock, $3,000.

Dunkerson & Thomson, stock of groceries, $3,500.

J. B. Waltrip & Son, stock of groceries, $1,000.

Toma Rocco, fruits, confectioneries
and household furniture, $1,000.

Insurance is as follows:

Jernigan & Ray, $8,000.

J. W. Smith & Co., $1,500.

Dunkerson & Thomson, $1,000.

J. B. Waltrip & Son, $1,400.

Toma Rocco, $1,000.

Dr. Ed Hayes had his dental office upstairs all lost his entire outfit.

The Opera Block was built in 1882 and 1883 and the Opera House was opened in the spring of 1883.

Deaths at Crofton.

Crofton, Ky., Feb. 1.—Mr. John A.

Lewis died last Friday morning with pneumonia; he was buried with masonic honors Saturday evening at the Clem Clark cemetery 3 miles from Crofton.

Mr. Dr. J. B. Williams of Morton's
Grove is visiting his father's family, A.

J. B. Clegg.

John Clark died last Thursday night with La Grippe; he was buried Saturday at St. Charles by the Masonic order of Earlington and St.

Charles.

Ed G. H. Myers, who has been very ill but is slowly recovering and will soon be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Woodson of Paris, Tenn., are here on a visit.

Mr. G. W. Morgan, who has been confined to his bed for the past week,
is improving.

W. E. Gray has secured a school at Kirksville for this spring.

Judge V. C. Clark was taken sick last Friday night and is confined to his room and is very sick.

Prof. W. W. Warner commences his spring school to-day at the Academy.

Deadlocks are still on in Oregon,
South Dakota and Utah.

Will Vote on Feb. 19.

After a long contest the drys have won in the preliminary skirmish and a vote will be taken in Daviess county on the question of prohibiting the sale of liquor in the entire county in quantities of less than five gallons.

The vote will be taken on Feb. 19

and the registration of voters in Owensboro, who will be qualified
October 1, will be on Oct. 18.

Judge Feland, who acted as special judge in some of the litigation, says
the opinion prevails in Owensboro
that the county will go dry.

DUN AND BRADSTREET.

Month of January Has Been one of Unusual Disappointment.

New York, Jan. 29.—R. G. Dun &
Co. will say to-morrow in their weekly
ly review of trade:

January has been a month of disappointment but of real gain. Nearly everybody has promised himself a land of milk and honey after New Year's and the slow progress looks to me to show such a state of mind.
Moreover, there are millions throughout the country who have been taking large ventures in advance of or apart from their regular business, because they expected a rise in prices. But the fall as yet to meantime seems to have been so severe, especially cotton, that prices have hardly changed in commercial travel and the general commercial buyers are more conservative than ever. Mercantile collections are interrupted and the improvement looked for in iron and steel is not in sight.

TWO MORE SENATORS.

These Populists Will Succeed Dubois and Squire.

Boise City, Idaho, January 28.—
Heifelt, Populist, was to-day
elected United States Senator to succed Dubois. The decisive ballot was Heifelt, 39; Dubois, 30; T. F.
Nelson, 1. Heifelt got 14 Democratic votes and one Republican; Dubois got 10. Heifelt is a farmer, and represents the people of the State Senate. His age is 38. His education is apparently only of a rudimentary character.

Olympio, Wash., January 28.—George F. Turner, of Spokane, was elected United States Senator to succed Squire in a caucus of the free silver Republicans. He received 54 votes. Judge Turner has been a Republican, but at the late election
he supported Bryan. He is considered one of the ablest lawyers in the state of Washington, and prior to 1888 he was Territory Governor.
Within the last two years he has become largely interested in mines in Northern Washington and British Columbia.

Assaults on Fulton.

Fulton, Ky., Jan. 28.—Miss Lydia
Carver, 17 years old, daughter of Mr.
John Carver, a prominent farmer who lives three miles north of Fulton, was choked into insensibility yesterday by a negro and outraged. Mr. Carver and his neighbor's about a mile distant, Miss Carver, were in the barn for eggs. Entering the building
she was seized by the negro. Parties are out securing the country.

Appoints His Brother Ab.

Russellville, Ky., Jan. 27.—John S.
Rhea has appointed his brother, Mr.
A. G. Rhea, his private secretary. Mr.
Rhea is at present Teller in the Bank of Russellville, and has held the position for several years. He has been connected with the bank in various ways for eight years. He will resign his position in the bank at once.
Mr. Rhea is one of the most popular young men in Russellville.

The Eighth Since November.

S. F. Rankin, president of the People's Bank, at Milan, committed suicide last week, taking morphine.

Rankin was a prominent man in Miami of the religious school and well thought of by gentlemen and all who knew him. It is said that financial trouble was the cause of his demise.

Fulton Guard.

Mr. R. M. Conway's sale of
lots in the John Young track on West Seventh street, Friday, did not come up to expectation and the
transfers were not made by Mr.
Young. They will try it again when
the weather gets better.

He Skinned the Mule.

Mr. R. M. Conway's sale of
lots in the John Young track on West Seventh street, Friday, did not
come up to expectation and the
transfers were not made by Mr.
Young. They will try it again when
the weather gets better.

Esq. M. B. King on Dec. 11 put up a lot of sheets averaging 80 pounds to feed them on skinned milk from his cows.

He fed them milk twice a day and cows on dry days when they were ranged 46 days later averaged 1561 pounds, or a gain of 14 pounds a day. Who can beat that?

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

PREFLPS—We are authorized to announce Judge John Phelps as a candidate for Congress from the 10th district, in the action of the "new era" party. Presenting his name to the voters in the Third Judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic convention April 15.

HANBERS—We are authorized to announce Judge J. T. Hanbers as a candidate for Congress from the 10th district, in the action of the "new era" party. Presenting his name to the voters in the Third Judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic convention April 15.

A negro barber named E. L. Penn, has been arrested at Pembroke charged with arson.

Mr. Bryan made his last audience at Galveston last night. If he speaks any more it will be on his own hook.

Of course Idaho's new Senator returned his Heifit! It stands when he was elected, though he is said to be a statesman who can't make a speech.

The Henderson Gleaner was multicled for $300 in the libel suit Saturday, based on an article published a year ago about a shooting scrape.

The worse thing yet brought to light about Lyman J. Gage, Carlisle's successor after March 4, is that he once voted for Grover Cleveland.

John Clark Ridpath, the historian of Greenup, Ind., has accepted the position of editor-in-chief of the Arena magazine, and will at once go to Boston to assume his new duties.

Tom Platt, of New York, who resigned as Senator in 1881, has been vindicated, but his endorsement is a sort of 16 to 1 affair. That is it took him 16 years to get one vindication.

Future Secretary of Treasury Gage, it is said is worth only $300,000. What he begins with does not concern the public as much as what he will quit with. How much will he be worth four years hence? That's the question.

Gov. Sadler has signed the prize fighting bill and Nevada now enjoys the distinction of being the only State where pugilistic mills are licensed. The Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight will start the ball in the early spring.

A young man named Lovell Whitesides was shot and killed at Frankfort, Ky., Saturday while under arrest. He had just Bailey Edson in a fight and the latter went off and armed himself and shot Whitesides while he was in charge of an officer. Edson's wounds may prove fatal.

Former Delegate Bob Walker, of 1892 memory, declining to engage in a mutual kicking with the editor of this paper because both helped to give Cleveland his necessary 43 votes, this explains his position.

"However timely the suggestion may be, and however eminently proper such a performance would be, there are two very strong reasons for declining the meeting. In the first place, gold standard times have so materially declined that a meeting of our pants that a contest of character suggested would likely be any thing but amusing; and in the second place, when we call to mind the great advantage Bro. Meacham would have in point of leverage, we are inclined to think that would be anything but mutual. However grimous the offense may be, brother, we are not prepared to accept capital punishment for the modest part we played in that memorial convention."

Your Vitality?

The essence of life is force. Every breath you breathe, every heart beat, every motion of your hand, takes force. The measure of force we call vitality. If this is lacking, there is loss of flesh, lack of resistive power, a tendency to catch disease easily, especially a tendency to consumption. For low vitality nothing is better than Scott's Emulsion. It supplies force to the body, the nourishing, strengthening elements of food in an easily digested form; enriches the blood, and builds up the system. When ordinary food is of no avail, Scott's Emulsion will supply the body with all the vital elements of life.

Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. All druggists.

If you will ask for it we will send you a book telling all about Scott's Emulsion. Free.

SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

Obituary.

(A tribute to the memory of Lucian Wootton.)

The loved and loving son, brother and friend, died when boyhood's days were yet vivid in his memory. Like the tender rose that modestly buds and holds concealed in its graceful petals untold sweetness, then perchance at the north wind's breath to wither and decay. So early in the morning of his life, just in the sunniest, happiest hours of all the year, in the sun teases bathe the fore-heads of distant hills and with its gentle rays kisses into life the blushing morning's glory, rich with dewy fragrance. When each little flower crept beneath its mother's bosom enrobed with a smile of contentment. O precious jewel and all creatures both great and small slipped at the nectar which bubbled from nature's own dear heart, and at the dawning of manhood's golden day he fell asleep in the arms of death.

Could we but fathom, the depths of his soul, we could not know—perchance why death should claim it of its own, the happiest, tenderest children of all the earth. But we can, we cannot look into the pages of memory and discern His everlasting will, but—

"Fear not we waiting heirs that weep
God still giveth his beloved sleep."

Lucian's spirit was a tender one; no soul could have been to parents more loving, no brother to brother more devoted, no friend to friend more constant, and should every hand that had grasped him with warmth and tender clasp bring to his grave a flower he would sleep beneath a monument of flowers. The tower, in the center of the hill, is to stand in memory of his love to God and Angels.

Life to him was more than a passing dream and he knew full well that the penalty of life was death, yet to him life was sweet and each day was full of increasing joys and so all the more reason to rejoice. If every moment is jeweled with a joy and our every hour rich with love; no matter if every morning's sun shall rise from the curtains of night unrisen by the wind or mist to sink in tender clouds in the golden west beyond the twilight's purple hill, we must all become acquainted with death in its season.

His life was so short and so sweet, his little star shot down and gone.

But in your early life you seemed to him far distant in the horizon of the west and a moiety of his life seemed not nearly half spent when sadder night drew her death robes about her, coupled with awful mystery, as she softly stole into his silent chamber and kissing down his eye-lids in peaceful slumber she sucked the honey of his breath and launched his spirit in gentle peace upon that stormy wave that has never yet borne upon its bosom the image of a home.

His little bark was wafted away upon the alternate waves of hope and despair and the soul that we loved has passed into the mists of silent death, and yet to those bathed in the blood of the lovely Galilean, there is no death.

"This is not death, what seems so to us, is the life of mortal breath."

"What a sweet life it has been."

He held aloft for awhile his little torch of life and struggled hard to increase its flame, but God in his wisdom bade him come into the fold and peacefully and without a murmur he obeyed, and now—

"Sweet soul thy work done,

"Sweet spirit into heaven gone;

"Our trials headaches gone and past."

"The world is safe with you."

"Thy slumber is sweet."

Nervous

People often wonder why their nerves are so weak; why they get tired so easily; why they start at every slight, but suddenly they forget why they do not sleep naturally; why they have frequent headaches, indigestion and nervous headaches, indigestion and nervous headaches.

Dyspepsia

The explanation is simple. It is found in that impure blood which is continually feeding the nerves upon refuse instead of the elements of strength and vitality which constitute opiate and nerve tonics. Since these do not cure, Hood's Sarsaparilla feeds the nerves pure, rich, red blood; gives natural sleep, perfect digestion, is the true remedy for all nervous troubles.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the One True Blood Purifier, $1 per bottle. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Hood's Pills take, easy to cure.

RIVERS IN THE ATLANTIC.

Courses Pursued by the Chief Ocean Currents.—The Gulf Stream.

Across the Atlantic ocean from the gulf of Guinea to Cape St. Roque moves a great body of water—the main equatorial current—which can be considered the motive power, or mainspring, of the whole Atlantic current system, as it obtains its motion directly from the ever-exacting push of the trade winds. At Cape St. Roque this broad current splits into two parts, one turning north, the other south. The northern part contracts, increases its speed, and, passing up the coast of South America as the Guiana current, enters through the Caribbean sea into the gulf of Mexico, where it circles around to the northward; then, colored a deep blue from the fine river silt of the Mississippi, and heated from its long surface exposure under a tropical sun to an average temperature of 80 degrees, it emerges into the Florida channel as the gulf stream.

From here it travels northeast, following the trend of the coast line, until, off Cape Hatteras, it comes into three divisions, one of which, the westernmost, keeps on to lose its warmth and life in Baffin's bay. Another impinges on the Hebrides, and is no more recognizable as a current; and the third, the eastern and largest part of the divided stream, makes a wide sweep to the east and south, inclosing the Azores and the dead water called the Sargasso sea, as the African current, runs down the coast until, just below the Canary isles, it merges into the lesser equatorial current, which, parallel to the main stream, and created for it by a long band of back-water, treks west and filters through the West Indies, making puzzling combinations with the tides, and finally bearing so heavily on the young gulf stream as to give to it the sharp turn to the northward through the Florida channel.

In the South Atlantic, the portion of the main equatorial current split off by Cape St. Roque and directed south leaves the coast at Cape Frio, and at the latitude of the river Plate assumes a due easterly direction, and crosses the ocean as the southern connecting current. At the Cape of Good Hope, after the cold, north-easterly Cape Horn current, and with it passes up the coast of Africa to join the equatorial current at the starting point in the gulf of Guinea, the whole constituting a circulatory system of ocean rivers, of speed value varying from 18 to 90 miles a day.—McClure's.

ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT.

Labouchere's Opinion of the Present Form of Motor-Carriage.

I have no special feeling of like or dislike towards a horse—my sentiments towards him are those that I entertain towards a pig or a donkey, or any other useful animal; nor have I ever understood why any one should be deemed the better man because his affections are centered upon a horse. The object of a carriage is to convey people and goods. The carriage is to my mind the best, that, at least, cost, adequately, the object. The motor-car, by all means, let it have large motors. Last Saturday I betook myself to Westminster bridge to see the procession of these vehicles on the way to Brighton. I was disappointed. No one yet seems to have grasped the fact that there must be a new departure in their form. Judging from those in the procession, their makers have simply sought to make them as like carriages drawn by horses as possible. Apart from form, the lighter ones seemed to vibrate greatly. By my side stood a talkative lady whose acquaintance I had not previously enjoyed. "If the people inside of them can cream," she said, "it would be better before they got half way to Brighton. I suggested to her that the petticoats can smell unpleasantly. "Stink," she said, "is the word for them," and it certainly was.—London Truth.

A Curious Event.

Ardenbury, county Limerick, saw a curious eviction recently. The Anglican rector of the place had been proved guilty of heresy by the general synod of the church of Ireland and had been ordered to give up his living. He refused, hoisted the Union Jack over the rectory, held protests against the way he was treated, to the outer walls, barricaded the house, and declared he would resist. The sheriff and his bailiff, however, got in through a window, when the clergyman quietly walked out of the front door, with a black bag on one shoulder and a parcel of books under the other arm.

A Person's Visit to New York.

A New Jersey parson visiting New York city wrote to his congregation that he had witnessed the performance of the "D—nation of Faust" by D—rosch, and was suddenly called home to rescue him from such profane associations.

HAS NO LIGAMENTS.

Remarkable Co-Existence to Which a Hind Has Trained Himself.

A Hind named Dava Lachman Dass is at present attracting the interested attention of the London medical profession. Mr. Dass is a Yogi, and if all Yogis are like Mr. Dass, the ordinary treatment of anatomy must be subjected to revision. He was exhibited to the students' anatomical society of St. George's hospital recently, and introduced by the lecturer as "an unusually complicated specimen of the Indian Yogi, namely, a Brahmin of a very high caste, who goes through various religious exercises with a view of qualifying himself better for paradise." These religious exercises seem to take a physical form, and Mr. Dass, a little dark gentleman, sat upon the table and proceeded to exhibit a selection from the 84 abnormal positions, which he has put in 40 solid years in learning. He seemed to have ligaments of the gutta-percha persuasion, while his joints evidently work on ball bearings. He folded his legs into a cravat, and then, after a few moments, he stepped upon one toe and strained and stretched about jauntily on his knees, a position which is said to greatly assist thought, though the thoughts of a white man in such a position would hardly be fit for publication. He folded his legs tightly round his body and stood thoughtfully on his finger tips for several minutes, in which posture he declared he was able to remain for seven days. However, as the medical students did not wish to carry out this particular experiment to its bitter end, Mr. Dass proceeded to lay the himself up in a chair, and then, after a few moments, came an officer on Gen. Gomez's staff. Later he was promoted to the position of secretary to Gen. Garcia, then commander of the department of the east. Finally, he was placed at the head of the first battalion of Holguin, where he displayed remarkable courage and ability.

When the ten years' war was ended in 1878 by the peace of San Jon Gen. Rivera was with Macario as his refusal to go to the peace conference, he protested bitterly against it, and when it was finally accepted left the island in despair and disgust and went to Central America, where he became a planter and his wealth and prominence.

As soon as he received intelligence of the peace offer he returned to the part of the Cubans he promptly left Central America, and, returning to Cuba, headed an expedition in the western part of the island, which soon joined the army of Gen. Maceo and added materially to its strength.

He was a man of great personal magnetism, and the soldiers are said to be devoted to him. Maceo regarded him as the ablest of his generals and as his natural successor.

MACED'S SUCCESSOR.

Gen. Juan Rius Riveira Is a Hero of Two Cuban Wars.

The students believe that Gen. Juan Rius Riveira has succeeded Gen. Maceo in the command of the Cuban forces in the Province of Pinel del Rio was not a surprise to those who are posted on affairs of the insurgent army. Gen. Riveira was next in command to Maceo, and a well known soldier. Gen. Maceo, a veteran of the war of independence, was a general of distinguished tact and bravery.

Although a native of the Island of Puerto Rico, born in Mayaguez in 1847, Gen. Riveira is the son of a wealthy Spanish family. His father was colonel in the army of Spain and a most valuable service to the country. His father's name was Juan Rius Riveira, and he was a man of great personal magnetism, and the soldiers are said to be devoted to him. Maceo regarded him as the ablest of his generals and as his natural successor.

BERMUDA LIFE PLANT.

The Most Curious Plant of the Prolific Family of the Plantae.

Travelers in Bermuda and the West Indies often bring back as a souvenir of their trip the leaves of an interesting plant of the houseplant family. It is known as the life plant, and when the leaves begin to shrivel and fade they send out little sprouts to renew the leaves, which are given to green and retain fresh and green for months.

The leaves are about four inches long, rich green in color, and of a smooth, waxed texture. The plant, books say, is genus "Bryophyllum, belonging to the Crassulaceae family; succulent and grows in the shade, and retains its leaves when cut.

If you take one of the leaves and pin it to a piece of cardboard, it will sprout within three or four days, if it is winter or summer. At first the top portion of the leaf will begin to wither and shrivel up, and this is likely to continue until the upper half has lost its green color. Then tiny white roots will sprout from the edges, and, in time, divide into groups of three or four, like these. These little offshoots will often grow to be an inch long, and contain several pairs of leaves. The limit of their existence seems to depend upon the amount of heat and light they can obtain.

Starvation in London.

Starvation caused 71 deaths in London last week of October, as against 29 in the previous year. In only a few cases was the privation that led to the fatal issue due to self-neglect. The majority of cases were women and over 50 years old, and several were widows of laborers. None of these poor creatures had applied for or received relief.

Sympathetic Women.

In minor matters in Syrus the women wait on the men, passing coffee, getting cigarettes, passing chairs, lights and the like. If a man waits for a woman to precede him through a door he is apt to be laughed at as "Parisian." If the women were better educated society conversation would be more interesting. The women never read books or papers and French is the usual language spoken. Spelling is a science the women know nothing of, but they talk sensibly on practical themes and are excellent housewives.

Dogs That Never Bark.

The Australian dog and the Egyptian shepherd dog never bark.

JACOB HAY BROWN.

Gen. May Has Made Attorney-General by the Next President.

Jacob Hay Brown, who is said to have been ten years old, and to have accepted, with great reluctance, the position of President-elect McKinley's cabinet, is one of the foremost lawyers of Pennsylvania. He is the foremost member of the bar in Lancaster county, a county that for a century or more has distinguished itself in the legal profession.

Mr. Brown has been eminent in politics for many years, and has more than once been mentioned in connection with very high offices in the nation and in his state. Winning eminence in his native state, he has been a member of the bar in Lancaster county, a county that for a century or more has distinguished itself in the legal profession.

Lawyers Can Cry if They Like.

The Supreme Court of Tennessee has just passed upon a new question; that is, the right of an attorney to cry in making his appeal to a jury. The opinion delivered by Judge Wilkes, of the court, is to the effect that he may do so, if he has a right to command it may be seriously questioned whether it is not his professional duty to shed them whenever proper occasion arises, provided they be not indulged in to such an extent as to impede the business of the Court."

BIG BLAZE AT PRINCETON.

Two Store Rooms and Their Contents Totally Destroyed.

Princeton, Ky., Jan. 29.—Fire broke out in Kaufmann & Goldmann's dry goods and clothing store, in Powell's block, this morning about 4:30 o'clock. It quickly spread and the adjoining building, occupied by Arch. Cash & Bros. as a grocery, and Calvert Bros. a tobacco factory, was also enveloped in the flames.

Both store rooms, with their entire contents, were completely destroyed. Cash & Bros. succeeded in saving only their books.

The adjoining store of Charles Ratiff, adjoining Cash & Bros., was for a time seriously threatened, but by hard work was saved from destruction.

Kaufmann & Goldmann's loss is about $12,000; insurance $10,000. Cash & Ratiff's building and stock were insured to the extent of $500; no insurance.

Dr. Joseph Miller had his office over Kaufmann & Goldmann's, and all of his office furniture and apparatus were destroyed. The insurance will cover his loss.

The double building which burned was valued at $35,000, and was fully insured.

No one seems to know how the fire originated.

Respectfully, WALTER F. GARNETT.

Dissolution Notice.

Following the dissolution of the firm of Garnett & Moore, I have to announce that Stephen E. Trice, Jr., is associated in the office with me under the firm name and style of Walter F.
